

Getting to and from the Home Office in Liverpool

Home Office The Capital Building Union Street/New Hall Place, Liverpool L3 9PP

Liverpool is now the only city where further submissions can be presented unless the client is very vulnerable in which case they can be made locally. Evidence must be presented in person by appointment.

While we wait to see what other assistance can be offered by the City Council or the Home Office to help people travelling to the city, we provide limited assistance to get people to and from their appointment. This document contains related maps and contact details.

Our main telephone number is
0151 709 1713

Our address is
St Anne's Centre,
7 Overbury Street,
Edge Hill,
Liverpool L7 3HJ

We are open Monday to Friday
9am to 4pm

Although we are farther from the Home Office than both the Bus Station and the Train Station, we are a place where people will be able to wait until their appointment. Monday to Thursday, receive breakfast and a midday meal.

If we know you are coming, it should be possible for us to take you from Asylum Link to the Home Office. You should telephone and ask to speak to a caseworker, with the dates and times you expect to be in Liverpool.

On arrival in Liverpool you should make your way to Asylum Link and tell the person on the front desk why you are here. Please note - we cannot commit to meet you at the bus or train station.

Following your interview you will have to make your own way to the bus or the train stations. We will not normally be able to pick you up after.

The maps on the following page show how to get to the Home Office from Asylum Link, Lime Street Train Station and Norton Street Bus Station.
